Secretary's office.

This morning I testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on EDC and German Contractuals.

E. and I lunched at the 1925 F Street Club.

Phil Perlman telephoned me about the Danish ship matter, after which I reported to the Secretary.

I saw Father Felix Morlion at former Ambassador Joe Grew's request.

Messrs. Perkins, Joe Wolf of RA, and McFall, from State, and Frank Nash and Robert Haydock from Defense, came in to discuss with me the NATO status of forces agreement being sent up to the Senate.

I went to see the Secretary with George Perkins and Harold Linder regarding the Battle Act.

Was co-host with Howland Sargeant at a reception at Blair-Lee House for members of the French Institute of Advanced Studies for National Defense.

This evening we dined with the Swedish Ambassador and Mme. Boheman.
